Recording Secretary: Amy Greenwood

- The tickets for the February 2020 Band Lottery are available to be sold. As of today, 13 envelopes have been returned with all tickets sold, 44 envelopes have been signed out, and 43 envelopes are still available to be signed out. For every ticket sold, each student will earn $6 for his or her band account.
- Mona will contact Acme to set up weekend dates in January to sell the remaining tickets.

3. Reports of Special Committees:

Fundraising – see report from above.

Concession Stand –

- The Concession Stand fall season is over. The stand is cleaned up and closed down for the year. It was a very successful season. A Big Thank You to Rusty and Hope for taking on this endeavor as well as all of the shopping trips to Sam's to keep the stand stocked. Jill Kries did a great job handling the sign up page.

4. Director's Report:

- The Winter Concert and Centreville Christmas Parade went well. Thank you for your help with the baskets.
- The Concert and Symphonic bands are working on their music for the District Band Festival.
- Class work has begun on music for the Solo and Ensemble Festival. Tuesdays and Thursday are rehearsal days for the small ensembles and Monday, Wednesday and Fridays are rehearsal days for the larger ensembles.
- There are two weeks between the Solo and Ensemble Festival and the District Band Festival.
- Proceeds from the fall TOB ticket sales has been deposited. This money will be used to purchase music for different trios.
- The Pit Orchestra signup sheet for the spring musical "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" is available. The music will be delivered on December 13th. Pit crew rehearsals will begin on Monday, January 6, 2020.
- The fall 2020 TOB schedule has been released. The QACHS TOB will be held on October 3, 2020.
- Still waiting to hear results from the Junior and Senior All State Band auditions.
- All Shore Band auditions will be held on January 25, 2020. Registration information will be given to interested students after the winter break. The All Shore Band Concert will be held at QACHS at 4 p.m. in the afternoon.
