2022 CARSON SCHOLARS TO BE HONORED AT EXCLUSIVE FILM PREMIERES ACROSS THE COUNTRY

TOWSON, MD – The Carson Scholars Fund (CSF) is pleased to announce that 547 new students were named as 2022 Carson Scholars this year. In May, these remarkable scholars will be recognized at exclusive film premieres across the country. Theaters will show the CSF original short film, “Carson Scholars: Heroes Among Us,” starring 2022 Carson Scholars. At the premieres, Dr. Ben Carson will deliver a special message and scholars will be honored in front of their families and peers.

The CSF gifts $1,000 college scholarship to students in grades 4 – 11 who demonstrate outstanding academic achievement and humanitarian qualities. This year, 547 students from across the country were named 2022 Carson Scholars. In addition, 803 students renewed their Carson Scholarship status by maintaining high academics and commitments to their communities. Every year, scholarship winners receive special recognition from the Carson Scholars Fund for their incredible achievements.

This spring, the CSF is pulling out all the stops to create an original short film and host private showings exclusively for 2022 Carson Scholars and their families. “Carson Scholars: Heroes Among Us,” features live shots of scholars demonstrating how they are using their gifts and talents to make the world a better place.

During the film showings, new scholars will be presented with a medal, and recognized scholars will be given a pin to add to the ribbon of their existing medal. Students’ names will be read to acknowledge their outstanding achievement! If scholars are unable to attend a showing in person, the film and celebration will be available online from May 25th through June 1st.

Every scholarship awarded brings the organization one step closer to co-founders Dr. and Mrs. Ben Carson’s dream of naming a Carson Scholar at every school in the country. Find the complete list of 2022 new and recognized Carson Scholars at <https://carsonscholars.org/>.
