QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Where Our Future Begins

NEWS RELEASE
February 10, 2025

QACHS STUDENT DESTINY FALODUN WINS MARYLAND'S EMERGING SCHOLARS AWARD

CENTREVILLE, MD - Queen Anne's County Public Schools is thrilled to announce that Queen Anne's County High School Senior Destiny Falodun has been selected as a recipient of "The 24: Maryland Emerging Scholars Award", a prestigious award recognizing the exceptional talents and contributions of Maryland's high school student leaders. Destiny was presented with the award on February 5, 2025, at an awards ceremony held in Annapolis, Maryland.

The Maryland Emerging Scholars Award celebrates 24 outstanding high school students across Maryland who have shown exceptional leadership, academic achievement, and a commitment to positively impact their schools and communities.

Destiny is an accomplished scholar and is passionate about pursuing a career in the medical field after graduation. She has earned a Seal of Biliteracy in Spanish, is a National Academy for Future Physicians Inductee, and has completed Harvard Online courses in neuroscience. This summer, Destiny will begin her internship with the Office of the Medical Examiner in Washington, DC.