Queen Anne's County Board of Education Announces Dr. Matthew Kibler as Interim Superintendent

CENTREVILLE, MD - The Queen Anne's County Board of Education announced Dr. Matthew Kibler as Interim Superintendent at its June 4, 2025 meeting.

Dr. Kibler currently serves as the Assistant Superintendent. He has worked for Queen Anne's County Public Schools for four years, previously working as the Director of Accountability and Implementation, overseeing the Blueprint for Maryland's Future in Queen Anne's County.

Prior to his tenure with Queen Anne's County Public Schools, Dr. Kibler worked for nine years at Washington College in Chestertown, MD, where he most recently served as the Assistant Vice President for Institutional Effectiveness and Analytics. He began his career as a high school math teacher. Dr. Kibler received his Doctorate of Educational Leadership from Wilmington University, has a Master's of Applied Statistics degree from Penn State, and a bachelor's degree in Mathematics from Washington College.

Of this appointment, Dr. Kibler says: "I am incredibly grateful to the Board for putting their trust and confidence in me to be the Interim Superintendent of Queen Anne's County Public Schools. It is an honor to accept this role. As a member of this community, I am deeply committed to the success of our school system. We are fortunate to have an incredible group of teachers, administrators, staff, families, and community members who care deeply about our students and their education. I am proud to be a part of Queen Anne's County Public Schools and look forward to continuing to work together in this new role."

Dr. Kibler resides in Church Hill with his wife Bryn, and their two sons, who both attend Queen Anne's County Public Schools. When not at work, Dr. Kibler can be found with his wife cheering on their sons at soccer and baseball games around the county.
