For more than 100 years, Notre Dame of Maryland University has educated teachers who lead, prepare and transform their students every day.

Our School of Education...
- is the largest private preparer of teachers in Maryland
- awards more degrees in teacher-shortage areas than any other institution in the state
- offers flexible programs at off-site locations in Anne Arundel, Baltimore and Harford Counties and in Southern Maryland
- graduates teachers of excellence; in the past five years, 13 Notre Dame graduates have been named Teacher of the Year

Master of Arts in Gifted and Talented Education*

Teachers will acquire the knowledge and skills to enhance understanding of gifted students and their needs. With this advanced degree, teachers will be equipped to assume a leadership role in gifted and talented education. Certificate programs also available.

Required Courses

- EDU-557 Leadership Seminar I
- EDU-567 Learning Theory and Practice
- EDU-676 Educational Application of Multimedia
- EDGT-500 Foundations of Gifted and Talented Education
- EDGT-501 Affective Characteristics of Diverse Gifted and Talented Learners
- EDGT-502 Curriculum for the Gifted and Talented
- EDGT-503 Research Seminar in Gifted and Talented Education
- EDGT-504 Practicum in Gifted and Talented Education
- EDGT-505 Strategies for Gifted and Talented

Elective Chosen with assistance from academic advisor ePortfolio required. NCATE and MSDE approved.

*Notre Dame offers the only NCATE- and MSDE-approved program in the state.

Certification: Gifted and Talented Education.