Dare to discover just how far you can go.

Welcome to a new way to learn, one that fits your life and career. If you’re ready to embark on a challenging and rewarding journey of self discovery, you’ll be glad to know that University of Phoenix and Queen Anne’s County Public Schools are right behind you.

As an Queen Anne’s County Public Schools teacher, staff member or employee, you can now receive tuition savings on associate, bachelor’s and master’s degrees, as well as certificate programs and individual courses at University of Phoenix.

Visit phoenix.edu/qacps To learn more about your exclusive education benefits.

*Although these courses are accepted by some state departments of education in the United States toward teacher certifications and endorsements, this may not be the case in all states or foreign jurisdictions. If you plan to use this course for certification or endorsement, please check with your own department of education and your school district for applicability. Transferability of credit is at the discretion of the accepting institution. Continuing education courses are not intended to transfer to degree programs at University of Phoenix. It is the student’s responsibility to confirm whether or not credits earned at University of Phoenix will be accepted by another institution of the students choice. Please check with a University Enrollment Advisor. While widely available, not all programs are available in all locations or in both online and on-campus formats. Please check with a University Enrollment Advisor. The use of the words partner or partnership is for marketing purposes only and is not intended to create a legal partnership. University of Phoenix is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the North Central Association. University of Phoenix was placed on Notice by The Higher Learning Commission, effective June 27, 2013. For additional information, contact The Higher Learning Commission, ncahlc.org. The University’s Central Administration is located at 1625 W. Fountainhead Pkwy., Tempe, AZ 85282. Online Campus: 3157 E. Elwood St., Phoenix, AZ 85034. © 2013 University of Phoenix, Inc. All rights reserved.
Frequently Asked Questions

What type of degree programs does University of Phoenix offer?
We offer degree programs from the associate to doctoral level in a range of high-demand fields, including education, business and technology. Our degree programs are designed in collaboration with academic and industry professionals to ensure quality, relevance and rigor.

Does University of Phoenix offer Continuing Teacher Education courses?
University of Phoenix offers Continuing Education courses taught by College of Education faculty — experienced P-12 educators who hold master’s and doctoral degrees. Our Continuing Education courses let you earn the continuing education credits you need for potential recertification, endorsements or professional growth. Visit phoenix.edu/programs/continuing-education/education to view our Continuing Education offerings.*

What financial benefits are available to me as an Queen Anne's County Public Schools teacher, staff member or employee?
All Queen Anne's County Public Schools teachers, staff members and employees are eligible for a special 10% tuition reduction when enrolling in any degree program, certificate program, or Continuing Education courses at University of Phoenix. In addition, application fees will be waived for new students.

Visit phoenix.edu/qacps to learn more.