Dear Volunteer,

We recognize that our system and school successes depend on the strong relationships we have with our community as well as the excellent level of support that we receive. Our school system has been very fortunate to experience a tradition of active parent and community participation. The efforts of many willing individuals have allowed us to provide programs designed to serve our diverse population.

It is one of our comprehensive master plan goals to continue our volunteer efforts and expand our program. Your commitment to volunteer in any of our programs will help us provide the network of support that is so critical for our students and teachers. Please realize that your efforts will be gratefully appreciated.

Working with students can be a very gratifying experience. I hope you will join other dedicated volunteers who give their time and energy to the students of our county and reap many rewards as a result of sharing your time and expertise.

Thank you for your help and welcome to the Queen Anne’s County team.

Respectfully,

Carol A. Williamson, Ed.D.

OUR COMMITMENT TO HUMAN RELATIONS

The Board of Education of Queen Anne's County is committed to promoting the worth and dignity of all individuals regardless of race, creed, religion, physical or mental disability, color, gender, national origin, age, occupation, marital status, political opinion, sexual orientation, or personal appearance. The Board will not tolerate or condone any act of bias, discrimination, insensitivity, or disrespect toward any person. The Board of Education believes all students can learn and is committed to a policy of educating children for learning and living by helping them develop an appreciation for the achievements, problems and aspirations of all people in our culturally diverse society.
INSURANCE COVERAGE
THIS IS THE LAW THAT ENABLES OUR SCHOOLS TO USE VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers are considered as agents or boards of education employees for purposes of comprehensive liability insurance and Worker’s Compensation.

The local Board of Education and the Board of School Commissioners of Queen Anne’s County may utilize volunteers in the school activities of the county. Such volunteer assistants shall not be used to supplant educational personnel but rather to assist regular employees in the pursuit of their assignments. Each local superintendent develops guidelines for the use of volunteer assistants within his/her local school system. Volunteer assistants shall be considered as agents of the local board of education and the Board of School Commissioners of Queen Anne’s County for the limited purposes of comprehensive liability insurance coverage under Section 56B of this article for the purposes of worker’s compensation coverage under Section 21 of Article 101. (1972, ch. 220) Effective July 1, 1972.

Art. 77, Section 112A-The Public School Laws of Maryland, 1972 Copulative Supplement

WORKER’S COMPENSATION

The Board of Education of Queen Anne’s County, Maryland shall not be liable for compensation to any volunteer under the Worker’s Compensation Act if the volunteer fails to sign-in for each period of service on the form provided at the Central Office or at any school within the purview of the Board of Education of Queen Anne’s County, Maryland.

SECURITY PROCEDURES

Schools, Parents, the Board of Education and all staff wish to make your volunteer experience a dual success. We want to make this a great experience for the students and for you. In order to provide as much security as possible for the students, we ask you to follow these brief steps:

As you enter the building:
* report to the office and sign in
* procure a volunteer badge and wear it during your stay

As you leave:
* return your badge to the office and sign out

CONFIDENTIALITY

As a volunteer for the Queen Anne’s County Public schools you are expected to maintain the same level of confidentiality as employees. Do not share information that you see or hear in schools including, but not limited to, student grades, class work, behavior, home environment, inclusion in free and reduced lunch programs, enrollment in special education programs, or the teacher’s methods. This information must be kept strictly confidential.
OUR COMMON GOAL...

The goal of the Queen Anne's County Volunteer program is to enhance the relationship between home, school, and the community. Together we should educate our students to become productive and contributing citizens in a diversified world.

OBJECTIVES...

* To assist school staff in attaining educational objectives.
* To increase communication between school, home, and community.
* To train volunteers to work in our schools and familiarize them with our education programs and objectives.
* To maintain a safe school environment at all school-sponsored events

VOLUNTEER RESPONSIBILITIES

- Adhere to all school and QABOE policies.
- Wear a volunteer ID badge at all times when volunteering.
- Attend volunteer orientation and training sessions.
- Report promptly to designated areas. Don’t forget to sign in/out.
- Regard all information relating to children, teachers, and schools as confidential.
- Establish a cooperative work-relationship with teachers, principals, and students. Patience, enthusiasm, and a sense of humor act as a catalyst in the establishment of good relationships.
- Contact the school level coordinator if there is a question or concern.
- Make prior arrangements for baby-sitting younger children.
- Refrain from dispensing medication or administering first aid to students.
- Use discretion when taking personal medications, both prescription and over-the-counter.
- Regular attendance is expected. In case of illness or emergency, please call the school's volunteer coordinator or administrator as soon as possible.
VOLUNTEER GUIDELINES AND TIER SYSTEM

Annually, the Board of Education will publicly request for volunteers through an advertisement in the local newspapers, the Student Handbook, and on the county website. Individual schools will also send home correspondence advertising the program.

All volunteers will be required to complete a Volunteer Application. This application will be made available through the school as well as on the website. The volunteer applications will be reviewed by the school’s volunteer coordinator as well as the principal.

Persons selected will be required to agree to a Maryland criminal history and National Sex Offender Registry background check conducted by the Board of Education. In addition to the background check, if the volunteers are involved in an overnight activity or student athletics, they must agree to an additional fingerprint background check by the Board of Education.

Volunteers are required to attend an annual volunteer orientation / training session. The assignment and supervision of the volunteers will be school based. An annual evaluation of the volunteer’s activities will be school based and reviewed by the school’s principal.

* Tier I: Any individual on the National Sex Offender Registry is not eligible for inclusion in the volunteer program with the Queen Anne’s County Public Schools. The Registry will be checked annually for all Tier I volunteers.

 Tier II: Fingerprinting is required every four years at the Board of Education of Queen Anne’s County. The current cost is $50.00. Any individual who pleads guilty or received a probation before judgment for any of the following crimes, attempted crimes, or a criminal offenses is not eligible for inclusion in the volunteer program with the Queen Anne’s County Public Schools: Crimes of violence, drug-related offenses, robbery, child abuse, pornography, contributing to the delinquency of a minor or similar crimes.
HELPFUL HINTS

- Remember to sign in and out to record your time.
- Have all your materials ready.
- Establish a warm, friendly, relaxed atmosphere. You might want to start by telling students something about yourself.
- Be sure the student knows and can pronounce your name.
- Listen attentively to the student.

- Build the student’s self-confidence.
- Get the student to focus on the task at hand. Let the student know what you expect of him/her.
- Have confidence in the student and give the student an opportunity to succeed.
- Recognize the student as an individual and value him/her for who he/she is.
- Don’t pry into student’s home life.
- A student’s name is very important. Learn the student’s name and nickname and use it frequently.
- Show that you are interested in the student as a person.
- Be creative and innovative, but remember, the teacher always has the primary teaching responsibility.
- Be reliable. The students are expecting you.

HOW TO TUTOR A STUDENT

→ Begin with a visit to the teacher to find out about the student’s assignment.
→ Develop an opening rapport with your student (How have you been? What’s New? Etc...)
→ Review what has been taught.
→ Review the objectives of this lesson.
→ Use your tutoring time wisely: work through the assignment and reinforce the concept.
→ Help correct errors and encourage “Mastery Learning”.
→ Review the lesson and answer any questions.
→ Leave on a friendly and positive note.
→ Discuss the tutoring session and the student’s progress with the teacher.
ROLE OF THE VOLUNTEER

- Work with small groups of children or individuals.
- Assist in all levels of content.
- Assist in listening centers and interest centers.
- Supervise seatwork and share information concerning student progress with teachers.
- Present enrichment activities in areas such as physical education, music, crafts, and creative arts.
- Prepare bulletin boards and all types of instructional materials.
- Provide clerical assistance in the office, classroom, and media center.
- Work on special projects.
- Serve as a chaperone on class and school field trips.
- Assist in areas such as science fairs, outdoor education, band camp, etc.
- Assist in tutoring.

ROLE OF THE TEACHER

- Supervise the volunteer while in the classroom.
- Discuss with the volunteer goals to be achieved.
- Plan ahead for the volunteer by providing needed information such as where to find materials, how to set up the activity, and/or which materials to use.
- Assess the capabilities of the volunteer and use them to full advantage.
- Inform the volunteer in advance if he/she will not be needed on a scheduled day.
- Review applicable school and board policies and procedures with the volunteer.
- Do not place a volunteer in a situation that makes him/her solely responsible for the supervision of children.
- Do not ask volunteers to make educational decisions regarding students.
- Provide tutors with materials and methods for individual student assistance.
- Solicit feedback from volunteers on progress of students.
- Suggest follow-ups.
Please check one or both of the following statements:

- I plan to volunteer for one-day events as a Tier I* volunteer
  Examples: Field Trip Chaperone, Dance Chaperone, Career Day, Field Day, Book Fair, Science Fair Judge

- I plan to volunteer for overnight trips or on a regular, recurring basis as a Tier II volunteer
  Examples: Overnight Band/Chorus Trips or Club/Team Trips, North Bay Trip, Classroom Asst., Coach, Advisor, Tutor, Mentor
